Hide (with hair)
Warm winter clothing, floor covering, moccasins, blankets
Hair
Stuffing for saddle pads, balls, cradles. Also made into paintbrushes, ropes, belts, headbands and pouches
Hide (without hair)
Clothing, arrow containers, shields, rattles, wrist guards saddle bags, tipi covers
Fat
Added to meat and berries to make pemmican
Tail
Used as fly swatter
Meat
Used as food, often dried to make it last longer
Intestines
Cooking cases for food, like sausages
Skull
Used for religious ceremonies
Brain and Liver
Used for tanning hides
Horns
Drinking cups, spoons, clubs, on headdresses, tips of sleigh runners
Bladder
Waterproof bags
Sinew (tendons)
Bow strings, laces, sewing threads, and cords
Blood
Put into intestines to make a kind of sausage
Teeth
Necklaces
Bones
Scrapers, knives, sewing needles, skinning tools, arrow shafts and sled runners
Stomach
Made into cooking pots, water containers, and food
Beard
Decoration for clothing and weapons
Hooves
Boiled to make glue